

Cr Keith Smith

Keith Smith was elected to Goulburn Mulwaree Council for the first time in 2024 and is dedicated to fostering an open-minded dialogue about the requirements of the community and looks forward to working collaboratively to ensure a brighter future for Quialigo.

During his term on Council, Keith has a strong commitment to improving rural roads and enhancing village life. He will advocate for recycling initiatives, believing in a sustainable approach.

With over two decades of experience in corrective services, Keith brings a wealth of knowledge to his role.

An active member of the local car club, Keith has a passion for vintage cars, proudly owning two that are around 100 years old. He is also a volunteer with Can Assist, providing support to those in need in the community.

A resident of Quialigo, where he has proudly lived for 22 years, Keith's interests extend to mixed farming and integrating new technology in agriculture. He is a proud father of three sons and two stepsons, and he cherishes his time with 16 grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
