

Cr Michael Prevedello

Michael Prevedello has proudly served the Goulburn Mulwaree community as a councillor on three separate occasions. His first term was in the 1990s, followed by a second term beginning in 2021. He was re-elected for a third term in 2024.

With more than 20 years of experience in radio, including a four-year cadetship at Radio 2GN, Michael has also gained valuable experience in retail and hardware management. Alongside his career, he co-owned a small business with his wife, Jill. In 2023, Michael furthered his education by graduating with a Bachelor of Theology from the Australian Catholic University. He is also a former long-time member of Apex and Rotary.

During his time in office Michael is committed to ensuring council decisions benefit the community. He is passionate about strong community representation, transparent planning, and public consultation. He believes a robust business presence will strengthen the local economy.

Outside of council, Michael enjoys reading, travelling, and spending time with family, including his three children and two granddaughters.

Originally from North Queensland, Michael moved to Goulburn in 1969, where he completed his secondary education at St Patrick's College. He has lived in the region for over 50 years.
